United States District Court

RE: Clarence McNair v. Andre Mackey, Civil Action No. L-02-2281

Dear Magistrate-Judge Gesner:

Pursuant to the Scheduling Order issued by the Court in the above referenced matter, the parties are jointly submitting the following status report:

Discovery will be complete on February 19, 2004. Defendant has scheduled Plaintiff's deposition on that day and there is no other discovery that is pending.

There are no outstanding motions that are pending before the Court and the parties do not anticipate filing any dispositive motions in this case. Neither party has demanded a jury trial in this case. The parties anticipate that the evidentiary hearing before the Court will take one or two days.

Lastly, the parties have not discussed the possibility of settlement of this matter but will do so after the completion of Plaintiff's deposition. The parties have also not made a determination as to whether a referral to another Magistrate-Judge is appropriate for an Alternative Dispute Resolution conference.

If the Court has any further questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

Glenn T. Marrow
